What is a locker & why do you need one?

Lockers can form part of a changing room complex, or be used throughout a facility to provide security and storage for personal effects or work equipment. Providing lockers can often help to reduce petty criminal actions within a facility such as theft or vandalism.

How were lockers stored?

All lockers were always subject to inspection and Management held combinations or keys. One place the lockers were inside of large bathroom/dressing rooms so obviously no food was allowed; lunches and lunchboxes were stored in a separate cafeteria area.

How do I keep lockers safe?

Just add a note into your locker room practices, GMPs etc about what can and what can not be stored in lockers and even though I doubt that legally you are required to do so, you may want to add that because the lockers are the property of the company they are subject to inspection with or without the employees permission or presence. All the Best,
