Who is RGS Energy?

RGS Energy and Real Goods Solar have brought solar savings to California homeowners and businesses since 1978. As the nation's most experienced installer, we've installed over 22,500 solar energy systems. RGS Energy makes going solar easy by taking care of everything for you - from financing to permitting, installation, and rebate acquisition.

What happened to RGS Energy?

RGS Energy hung on as many of the bigger national installers ran out of cash or exited the market: Sungevity, Verengo, NRG Home Solar. SolarCity's meteoric rise ended in a sale to Tesla and a quiet abdication of market share. Sunrun and Vivint have proven to be the rare durable solar installers at a national level.

Why should you choose RGS Energy?

RGS Energy makes going solar easy by taking care of everything for you - from financing to permitting, installation, and rebate acquisition. Our customers love generating their own clean energy, saving thousands of dollars, and helping the planet. The future is bright. There are lots of ways to go solar.

What happened to RGS solar?

Blessed with a pile of cash at a time when few solar installers had it, RGS went on a buying spree. It acquired regional installers including California outfits Marin Solar, Carlson Solar, Independent Energy Systems and Regrid Power, and it later absorbed New England's Alteris Renewables.

Did solar roofs save RGS?

Solar roofs failed to save RGS. But a piece of it lives on with founder John Schaeffer, who left the company in 2013 and bought back control of the Solar Living Center, a lush compound in Mendocino dedicated to teaching sustainable lifestyles, including solar power, permaculture and natural construction techniques.

Why did I call RGS last year?

I called RGS last year because my system was malfunctioning. They insisted that I was responsible for paying $350. for a local company to just come to my house, not including servicing the system. (RGS also advised me to have the system serviced twice a year, really?!)
